 - A 2nd draft of the 50 things to do in honour of Vanier's 50th Anniversary was circulated. It is attached with minor changes.
 - Members discussed promotion for the 50th anniversary. Objectives include: encouraging residents to enjoy the community and changing perceptions of those outside Vanier, and
 - Post and follow up to Vanier neighbours
 - Perspective Vanier will participate monthly
 - Congregate social media twitter activity around #Vanier50
 - Helena will investigate promoting on Unique FM
 - Publicize at Dejeuner Flocons and VCA Christmas Party

5. Partner's reports

▪ Councillor Mathieu Fleury's Office

The final meeting of the current council will be Nov. 28

The first sitting of the new council will be Dec. 5 and committees will be set up after that.

The Office of the Councillor congratulated the Emond Neighbourhood Watch for its win Public meeting for the development at Greensway and Mark.

Montreal working group is meeting on Thursday

Helena spoke with Julie McArthur about the Merit Program for crisis intervention, and she is interested in expanding this program into Vanier. This program intersects with the project of identifying problem addresses.

▪ BIA

- Wevolution is a strategic planning initiative to redefine the vision of Vanier and the redevelopment of Montreal Rd.
- CSCV, VCA and BIA will organize the Winter Solstice celebration for December 21 from 4-10pm in the lots at Montreal Road and Begin. The celebration will include a Christmas Market. Everyone is invited.
- The BIA will be welcoming new members of the board of directors, as this is a year when terms expire. Announcements to come.
- The BIA is working with the city which will be welcoming new cannabis distribution sites in April. The focus is on enforcing current zoning laws to minimize the impact on businesses already in place.
- Two new murals are being planned for Vanier.

▪ Crime Prevention Ottawa

- Nancy handed out a recently published pamphlet for parents — “Youth Criminal Justice: What Parents Should Know.” The Somali Centre for Family Services provides training in support of the booklet.
 - A current issue for CPO is shootings occurring in many neighbourhoods. There is a change in the behaviours of gangs, who are not attached to neighbourhoods, but to the drug trade. Young people appear to be carrying weapons, and normalizing being armed “for protection.” There is a statistical increase in weapons.
 - There will be a new chair of the CPO directors board of, as the former chair was not re-elected.
 - Municipalities must develop community safety and well-being plans—a new initiative from the former provincial government. CPO will be leading this initiative.
- Vanier Community Association Lauren Touchant
 - The VCA continues to promote and lobby for neighbourhood policing, which was eliminated at the end of 2016.
 - A presentation at a VCA meeting addressed toxic waste in old landfills in Vanier. These have been tested. Dominion Bridge dumps have been tested. The level of toxicity is somewhat higher than normal. Questions included long term effects on gardens. No subsidies for blood tests or soil tests related to this issue.
 - Francophone residents are working to resist the cuts announced by the Ford government and the VCA subcommittee is engaged. VCA is supporting the fund raising and is waiting for an update on the current status.
 - The VCA is working on a vision for a community development fund
 - December 11 party will be at Chilaquiles on Montreal Road.
 - The Francophone committee is very active. Upcoming events under discussion:
 - A mardi gras
 - A salon de livre in partnership with the African Caribbean community
 - The VCA acknowledged Vanier Beautification’s work
 - Safety Committee:
 - The greatest success in the past few months has been addressing the safety and environmental problem at Jean Coutu related to disposal of drugs.
 - The first self-defence group-training session was very successful. K2 Martial arts offered the course. There will be a follow-up session.
 - The VCA wants to reach out to the Inuit Community and invite participation in upcoming events.
- Ottawa Community Housing

Frederic updated the committee:

 - Discussions on Community renewal at Richelieu Court are underway.
 - OCH has hired a new community development manager. Nathalie Drouin will begin work on January 4.
 - Christmas events are planned for Garneau, Lacasse and Montfort. The Tenants Association at Lacasse is taking the lead in that location.
 - It was noted that regular lunch/causerie events at Lacasse and Montfort residences are opportunities for organizations to promote their programs.

- Crime Stoppers

Crime Stoppers' volunteers provided positive feedback regarding the Halloween Fun Zones again this year.
The fact that the Crime Stoppers continues to receive tips from Vanier is a welcomed indicator that the messages and promotion are working.

Centre des services communautaire

- Partners were encouraged to attend the Snowflake breakfast, the fundraiser for Partage Vanier, will be held December 7. The fundraising target is $45,000.00.
- Rose Anne reported on an event called, "Random Hacks of Kindness," a weekend of volunteer software programming for good causes. It is an opportunity for non-profit organizations to get a start on designing and programming software solutions to support their operations. Velo-Vanier participated in October.

Next meeting: Monday, Jan. 21, 5 p.m. Ottawa Room at Vanier Community Service Centre.
